PICK OF THE WEEK | ARGYLE

AMERICAN VAULTING ASSOCIATION

Megan Benjamin is the reigning world champion of vaulting.

Most people think of extreme-sports practitioners as tattooed daredevils, quite the opposite look of the folks who are equestrian vaulters – which looks pretty extreme to us. Combining gymnastics and equestrian events, these athletes perform dance, gymnastics and acrobatics on horseback. At Vault Texas 2007, there will also be demonstrations of dressage, drill team and therapeutic riding.
